Missouri State Song

Out of 1013 contestants, Mrs. Lizzie C. Hull, of St. Louis, wins $500 prize for words to State song, her music being rejected. The words are as follows:

MISSOURI.

Missouri, fair, we bring to thee
Hearts full of love and loyalty;
Thou central star, thou brightest gem,
Of all the brilliant diadem—
Missouri.

CHORUS

Then lift your voice and join the throng
That swells here praise in joyful songs,
Till earth and sky revivitate;
Our own, our dear, our grand old state—Missouri
She came a compromise for peace;
Her prayer is still that strife may cease;
She mourned her blue, wept o'er her gray,
When side by side in death they lay—
Missouri.

CHORUS

No North, nor South, nor East,
nor West,
But part of each—of each the best.
Come homeless one, come to her call;
Her arms are stretched to shelter all—Missouri.

While grading the north-west corner of the public square last week, it was found that there was an immense amount of rock where the old jail building stood. Some of the oldest citizens of Jackson tell us that on the site of the old jail is where the State Bank stood which was sold and a hotel built around it, which was destroyed by fire. About sixty years ago the lot was purchased by the county for a jail.
